Chapter 1 by Katana S. Kill

A tall, slender man walked down the hall. He carried a knife about 7 in. long. They all called him the Titan. The Titan of the world itself. All feared him. He lived in a red painted tower on an alien planet.

His tower looks like: | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

A guard shuffled over. "I think that it is time for my pay. Do you think?" Coldly looking at the stout guard, he chopped the guard's head off. 'That will teach witnesses to not ask idiotic question,' Titan thought. He strode to his throne and sat down, thinking about conquering the fire estate of Ubhò.

The Titan didn't know it, but outside three assassins were scaling the tower wall, knives in their mouths. The names of these crazy assassins were Beon, Nezzi, and Greñbô. They were brothers and wanted revenge. The evil Titan had killed their family while they were at the market buying milk. Nezzi, the oldest, wore a ragged pair of pants. His ripped shirt, (it was ripped by the Titan himself) showed his large ever-bleeding cut, and also showed his tattoo on his arm, shaped as a star. Every sibling had one.

Back in the tower, Titan was reading his favorite book, (this is so dumb) Sherlock Holmes, sent to him by an earthling. His favorite adventure was "Five orange peeps". He began reading, not knowing who was watching...
